ATA SEEKING NOMINATIONS FOR DISTINGUISHED TOPICAL PHILATELIST

The American Topical Association's "Distinguished Topical Philatelist" Committee is now seeking and accepting nominations for the 2008 DTP Award, to be presented at the annual ATA convention, to be held at the National Topical Stamp Show on June 13 – 15, 2008 in Portland, Oregon.

The DTP Award is the most prestigious award given by the ATA. ATA members may place in nomination those who have made significant contributions to the ATA as well as to topical philately. They have been awarded since 1952.

Nominating letters must include a description of the contributions made by the nominee and must be received no later than November 1, 2007.

The DTP Committee will review all nominations and select the one person they think is the most deserving of the award.

Nominations should be sent to: DTP Committee, Don Smith – PO Box 576 – Johnstown, PA 15907-0576.
